From the President

Hello Quilters,

Can you believe our last meeting for 2022 is next Thursday? This year seems to have flown by. I'm happy that our guild is coming back to life...8 new members this year. Woohoo! We've had an average attendance of 15 members. I would love to see that increase in 2023. Our program chairpersons are working hard on securing exciting, wonderful presenters for next year. It's not too late to recommend someone, even yourself. I know we have very talented members. If you would like to share your quilt collection and quilting life with us, just let me know. We'd love for you to present.

Our next event is next Thursday, November 10th from 6:00 – 8:30. We'll have our annual Mini Quilt Auction and Bazaar. It's going to be so much fun! We're having "walking tacos" and yummy desserts. Dot will be demonstrating her Accuquilt, Colleen is showing how to do a flange binding and Gretchen is showing how to make a Christmas ornament. We'll also be having a Rail Fence Race between all that come. In between all the various activities, you can bid on silent auction items or purchase items in our boutique.

Also, please don't forget your Raffle Quilt money. You'll need to return your ticket stubs to Alice. We'll have our drawing at our Christmas Party on Saturday, December 10th at Tana's house. Details below.

Whew, we've had a wonderful year. I hope to see you next Thursday!

Elaine R.

Happy Thanksgiving

Community Service

Each month the Allen Quilt Guild donates items to various charities.

For November we are requesting food items for ACO: canned goods, peanut butter, cereal, mac and cheese, etc. No green beans, please.

I will have a jar for cash donations so we can purchase some items to donate, if you are unable to bring an item.

Check out the kits available at the Community Service table.

* Pillowcase Drive for Lone Star Santos *

Goal is 100!

Join us in a Pillowcase Drive benefiting disaster-stricken children and families. Lone Star Santos provide love, hope, joy, toys, and hugs in the Convoy of Toys. We have a free pillowcase video on our website to show you how to do the “burrito” style of pillowcase. I think there are 3 seams total. Bring them to our guild meetings when finished. For more information about Lone Star Santos, visit their website at www.lonestarsantas.org. Deadline is the end of 2022!

There isn't a newsletter in December.

May you enjoy all of the season's festivities with your friends and family.

Happy Quilting!

Lorraine M.
